BENEFITS OF ADTSEA MEMBERSHIP

Unified voice/representation

The association maintains liaison with local, state and federal governmental agencies and organizations.

Publications

- The Chronicle is a professional journal featuring the best thinking in the field; an invaluable resource for professional growth.
- Monthly e-newsletter and e-news alerts are distributed through e-mail to members and contain the latest information on driver education and association news.
- Use the ADTSEA ListServ to communicate with other ADTSEA members for networking and informational purposes.

Resources

Receive curriculum and teacher resources

Conferences

The annual ADTSEA Conference brings together national leaders in traffic safety and driver education in the interest of quality programs. Exhibitors display related products and services and allow corporate members to target those who are demographically suited for their products.

Consultation

ADTSEA provides assistance to state agencies, colleges and universities, state associations, local school districts, individual members, corporate members and others.
